

Slayed Kings

Get The Shot

Burn down
Every flag of this nation raised to fear
Tear down
All the walls they have built to keep us in
Break out
From this cage where to protect means to kill
Stand up
Fire back, overcome and refuse to kneel

The day I end up dead, I'll bring you scum with me

Failing breeds failing
Born to lose the game
Failing breeds failing
Slaves to ignorance
Failing breeds failing
Reason gone to waste
Failing breeds failing
Bomb this fascist state

Paranoia feeds the sightless sheep
Forever mourning among this grimy breathing disease
Spitting venom on your twisted realm
And may I live long enough to watch you drown in filth

Break down the walls
Keeping you in the crypt of enslavement
Break down the walls
Or just perish in the fire you fucking chose to feed

The day I end up dead, I'll bring you scum with me

Failing breeds failing
Born to lose the game
Failing breeds failing
Slaves to ignorance
Failing breeds failing
Reason gone to waste
Failing breeds failing
Bomb this goddamn fascist state

No remorse, no mercy for brutality
No matter how hard you bite
I won't fucking break

Despised and forced to obey
Every strike just feeds the rage

No remorse, no mercy for brutality
Eat the bullet, a cure for your insanity
Your chosen race is a pile of shit
Suffer the cycle and wait, your throne will fucking break

Until the day I lay dead...

No retreat, no self-restraint
Forever fighting the weak

Forever slaying the kings
