Getter

Police were forced to open fire on a naked man
Who refused to stop chewing the face
Off of another man
The victim's face was literally bitten off

I was terrified
It was probably the nastiest, most horrific incident I've ever seen

That cop has no choice but to shoot
When he found a naked man chewing away at another man's face

He had his face completely from the top of his forehead to almo st his jaw
It wasn't just that he was being bit, the person was actually s wallowing pieces of his face

Superhuman strength
No ability to feel pain
Very powerful drugs

His cannibalistic attacker unfazed by the officer's commands to stop

When the police approached him he turned around and growled
And kept attacking the victim on the floor
The initial shots had no effect we had to repeatedly shoot him about four times until the man collapsed

The naked attacker now dead on the sidewalk
His now faceless victim lay on the ground next to him writhing in pain as sources say he no longer had eyes or a nose

I see that he's fully traumatized
It was like something out of a horror movie
The body temperature reaches such a high degree
That they have to take all their clothes off Because they're basically melting from the inside

Superhuman strength
No ability to feel pain
Very powerful drugs

In other incidents people have admitted to taking a new strain of what they're calling bad LSD
He says it turns normal people into monsters
