

Made for You (Alone Again)

Getter

It's 5 in the morning
Can you at least tell me where you're going
Or if im even really here with you
But maybe this is on me
Just want to show you how our future could be
Isn't that what you've always wanted darling, darling

So I try my hardest to show you something
I thought that no one else could
But in the end we die alone
So maybe this is good
And from the bottom of my fucking heart
I wish you understood
That I was made for you babe
I was made for you babe

I was made for you babe
I was made for you...

(So I try my hardest to show you something
I thought that no one else could
But in the end we die alone
So maybe this is good
And from the bottom of my fucking heart
I wish you understood
That I was made for you babe
I was made for you babe)

Now it's 12 o'clock noon
Not even a text, I hope you come home soon
I can't get out of bed
Just tell me what was said
Please just come home
I can't be alone again

If I could touch your skin
Just one more time
I swear that I will make this right
If I could touch your skin
Just one more time
I swear that I will make this right
If I could touch your skin
Just one more time
I swear that I will make this right

So I try my hardest to show you something
I thought that no one else could
But in the end we die alone
So maybe this is good
And from the bottom of my fucking heart
I wish you understood
That I was made for you babe
I was made for you babe
I was made for you babe
I was made for you babe
I was made for you babe

I was made for you babe
