My heart flutters toward you, starting from today, us
 We're dreaming and praying, starting from today, us
 I'll send you my heart with the wind and the sunset
 My heart that longs for you falls down
 Me gustas tu gustas tu
 Su tu tu ru I like you

Gustas tu su tu ru ru

We are standing one step behind
When will we become sentimental?
We're both so shy, we can't even say anything
But I wanna go closer to you

Like the flowers that sway in the wind
I don't know our future
But I'll be brave and confess to you
Two is better than one, let's feel each other
I wanna gather my heart and tell it to you

My heart flutters toward you, starting from today, us
We're dreaming and praying, starting from today, us
I'll send you my heart with the wind and the sunset
My heart that longs for you falls down

Me gustas tu gustas tu
Su tu tu ru I like you
Gustas tu su tu ru ru

Let's stand facing each other
Let's not let go of our hands and let's promise
I'll give you precious memories
Pleases love me more than now

Like the clouds that flicker under the moonlight
Time keeps ticking
Now I'll be brave and confess to you
Two is better than one, let's feel each other
I wanna gather my heart and tell it to you

My heart flutters toward you, starting from today, us
We're dreaming and praying, starting from today, us
I'll send you my heart with the wind and the sunset
My heart that longs for you falls down

I'll hold you, until always, until always
Even if you don't say it's love, I can feel it
Gathering my thankful feelings

My heart flutters toward you, starting from today, us
We're dreaming and praying, starting from today, us
I'll send you my heart with the wind and the sunset
My heart that longs for you falls down

Me gustas tu gustas tu
Su tu tu ru I like you
Gustas tu su tu ru ru
