As time time for the moon night
0 000 00 00

The shimmering starlight shines, but you
Where are you looking at
I think you'll be gone soon

Turn on the lights, my heart is dark
Today I'm feeling sad
It seems like my presence of mind
Isn't in your heart
I wonder when you threw me out

The stars shine as much as you like
I still don't know what to do
What speech is trapped in the fog
I'm thinking about you helplessly tonight

The shimmering starlight shines, but you

Where are you looking at
I think you'll be gone soon
The time to wait is over
I'll send you away now
I want to secretly keep you in my room tonight
Night, night, fly through the night sky
As time time for the moon night
I'll meet you in my dreams

Should I confess my love (confess)
I keep calling you out the window
So between you and me
I hope it narrows down tonight

The shimmering starlight shines, but you
Where are you looking at
I think you'll be gone soon
The waiting time has passed
I'll send you away
I want to secretly keep you in my room tonight

I'm not sure if I can get close to you
I'm hesitating but I'm staying here
You don't see how much I love it

It's been a few days now since I've been whimpering
Where are you going
I want to follow you right now
The moment we waited for, it's all passed today
Tonight I helplessly chased you
You're out of reach and I miss you
Night, night, fly through the night sky
As time time for the moon night
I'll meet you in my dreams
