

Fire and Brimstone

Ghetts

How long have I been low?
When's the last time man had to wait till dark then climb through a window?
When's the last time man had to hide in bush and silent a ringtone?
When's the last time man had to go 'round there with fire and brimstone?

Blue lights in my rearview
New life, career too
My girl said you're legit now
Why do feds still scare you?
I still get flashbacks
Man done bare moves
Ran up in houses
Filled vans and cleared rooms
Before I had an accountant
I weighed grams in Claire's room
And all she wanted out of it
Was money for a hairdo
Maybe an outfit
I was like fair doos
Cah that was my down chick
From 'round about year 2
Just jumped in the whip
Driver said, "Where to?"
I told him Balham
Cats know I'll be there soon
Trap house smokey
I know about bare fumes
Ran from the police
Window and I hear boom

How long have I been low?
When's the last time man had to wait till dark then climb through a window?
When's the last time man had to hide in bush and silent a ringtone?
When's the last time man had to go 'round there with fire and brimstone?

How long have I been low?
When's the last time man had to wait till dark then climb through a window?
When's the last time man had to hide in bush and silent a ringtone?
When's the last time man had to go 'round there with fire and brimstone?

Distant memory
Chase through Blackwall Tunnel
Went for a different entry
If they're talking hustle
Mine's consistent, not temporary
If they're talking trouble
It was based on instant envy
If they're talking bubbles
Back when they was called 120's
Look, how long I been styling?
How long I been riding?
How long I been driving?
How long was I hiding?
Warrant out for my arrest
Feds pouring out of my address
Persistent offender
Different agenda

I did not surrender
Stereotyped by any system I enter
TDK, nah, I mean TDA, nah, I mean GBH
Free Titch, free Ashman, free Tyler, I feel his pain

How long have I been low?
When's the last time man had to wait till dark then climb through a window?
When's the last time man had to hide in bush and silent a ringtone?
When's the last time man had to go 'round there with fire and brimstone?
