

Intro - So Damn Dedicated

Ghetts

The most anticipated
It's been worth the wait
It's 2007
Start of a new era
Movement, let's go

So damn dedicated (100 percent)
My work rate and wordplay's first place
And no man could ever change it
It's my destiny
No plan could effect my dream
I've done sets for Kane and sets with Dean
And when I'm touring make some extra cream
But the experience was priceless, they get me keen
And now I'm driven by a force that's impossible to visualise
I'm driven like a Porsche, still they criticise my talk
It's impossible to live a life, living like the wolves, so tight
I got snow white, it's inside my shorts
Understand me, I'm as careful as I can be
So my family do not sit inside the court
While they minimise my salt
Any mission I abort means it weren't worth the risk
I ain't sticking by the rules but it weren't worth the sixth
So, I'm spitting till I am [?] turn words to scripts
You can visualise my thoughts from the first words I spit
I ain't living like a fool
Every word this person writ is certified
I'm here to [?] decide, you ain't worthy I
[?] release, when I'm half of 35
Some thought Justin was just a statistic
Nah they had it twisted like curly fries
Them times the game was filled up with MCs with nursery rhymes
They couldn't see the future, dad
I call it blurry sight
Me? I could see clear but the time I had the scene scared
I was way too late
The only niggas I used to rate was Kane, Doogz, Shark and J2K
Some say I'm gonna flop like an amateur cook
Trying to make souffle
But let me just say, UK
It's a new day, I'm due praise
Since I was spitting skippy flows on Risky Roadz
Niggas know I'm inconsistent
This alone is sick for instance with the snow, I mix the difference
On any tempo, my nigga, them know
I spent loads of time, perfecting this to the end shows
It's perfect like ten toes, I spend doughs
On studio, truly so
I stay on top but falling off like Coolio
Once upon a time, I was a lost boy like Rufio
Niggas wanna shoot me, so I'm strapped
And I hold it tight like Scooby holds the snacks
I do reload and clap
Whatever the weather, I'm about it
Then I'll write about it like I'm just like a fletcher
My pad's full with killing and crap talk
And I ain't proud of it

But you see where I'm coming from, London
Being a villain is natural
Living in prison is actual
When the strap is pulled
You'll see more space than an astronaut
Straps are pulled, mainly for safety, it's crazy
But lately, no matter what the age be, sunshine
You can be a victim of gun crime
Don't daydream, I'm unsigned
But sometimes I mainstream into my own world
Because the music scene is too extreme
But I've been through it with no help
It's proof I'm king, salute my team
I face war with the tanks or
Or 84, with lines to put my views between
And I'll set alight to any route
So many engineers are due to scream
I'm certain, star
I've been working hard
I'm back with a work of art
It's crack, go and purchase fast
That's [?]
I'm versatile, don't ever think you've heard my style
I'm Ghetto and J. Clarke and J. Clarke is mellow
Both spray bars but we're the same fellow
That's two for the price of one
Ghetto, say hello
Yeah, I'm back in the building
And I'm naturally [?]
And I'm packing the steal for olders in the game
Action is true and I don't wanna actually kill them
But gradually, they're gonna have to be real men
I hope they feel offended
Why you on the limelight
If you ain't got your mind right?
When the mic's mine
Despite crime, I'm so damn dedicated
Turn off your HiFi
I'm the Einstein of grime
That's why I'm idolised
I'm minus like 2000 & Life plus hype
But Ghetto Gospel was a little less hostile
Just to prove a point
I can do the smoother joints
Without using points
I say I'm not an artist
Don't say I'm not an artist
Who'll prepare to have that view destroyed

And that's only the intro
There's a lot more like
This is Ghetto Gospel fam, you know? Like, Ghetto Gospel is in stores, right now, yeah?
Spread the word, yeah?
The engineer's Danny C, yeah?
He does this, yeah?
Bap, bap, bap, bap
A beat butcher in a beat is absolutely reckless Movement
