

No Love

Ghetts

Can't find anyone, can't find anyone
No love no love no love for you
Can't find anyone, can't find anyone
Can't find anyone, can't find anyone
Can't find anyone, can't find anyone
Can't find anyone

Close your eyes love is blind you can read between the lines wh en there's no love (no love for you)
Love is to die for and it ain't a crime but it aches when there
's no love (no love for you)

I can answer your questions but I can't ask for acceptance
I'm the last of the genuine, can't chance it with everything
I see how you look on the 'gram but I also know how long you took to do all the masking and editing
Look at me talking, all glowed up Now I'm acting like my past ain't relevant just because I'm in my element
Ain't it evident I obviously did not know what always and forev er meant Ups and downs like the letter M
I was out onto better things, I was only about seventeen
What did I know about love, church bells and wedding rings?

Can't find anyone, can't find anyone
Can't find anyone, can't find anyone
Close your eyes love is blind you can read between the lines wh
en there's no love (no love for you)
's no love

I wish you all the best, it's not all a regret
Isn't it a shame that I can't call you a friend
I can't call you again
With all due respect I weren't no jiggalo
And you weren't no super head
Facts are facts so when the truth is said
We just weren't compatible
I weren't the player of the year but yeah I had a ball
And if you had the balls to, have a ball too
Alright brudda ooh, there's some magical moments in madness
And sometimes I let the madness rule
Man just cool, pussy turn mandem fool

Give it all up babe, it's never enough
Blame it on love it's all you gotta do
Should have known
Close your eyes love is blind you can read between the lines wh

en there's no love (no love for you)
Love is to die for and it ain't a crime but it aches when there
's no love
