

Lachryma

Ghost

Ripping through every poem
Like a vampire should
And it takes one to know 'em
Like I knew you would

In the middle of the night, it feeds
In the middle of the night, it eats you
Everybody knows, everywhere I go
I can never run and I cannot hide

I'm done crying over someone like you
I'm done crying, I hope you're feeling it too, now
I'm done

Crying, crying
Now that sweet's gone sour
Seeping down the cracks
Mm, getting worse by the hour
The vile rot attacks, oh

In the middle of the night, it feeds
In the middle of the night, it eats you
Everybody knows, everywhere I go
I can never run and I cannot hide

I'm done crying over someone like you
I'm done crying, I hope you're feeling it too, now
I'm done
Crying, crying

Everybody knows, everywhere I go
And I cannot wait until the day when

I'm done crying over someone like you
I'm done crying, I hope you're feeling it too, now
I'm done crying (crying) over someone like you
I'm done crying (crying), I need somebody new now
I'm done
