

I walk along the edge and flirt with how deep I can go
Before I lose control

Maybe I'm backing down
Maybe I'll turn it around but my head it keeps spinning
I've let instinct take a dive and not resurface

I believe the dead won't remain the cold
Bury me with souls lost in vacant bones (Woah)
Is this as far as I can go? (Lead us home)
Bury me with souls lost in vacant bones

Pushing that line of how far my body can go
Let the demon take its toll

Maybe I'm clocking out
Maybe I'll figure it out but the room it keeps spinning
I don't think my mind survived, my spirit took a dive

I believe the dead won't remain the cold
Bury me with souls lost in vacant bones (Woah)
Is this as far as I can go? (Lead us home)
Bury me with souls lost in vacant bones

How far can I go?
How far can I go?
How far can I go?
Can I

I believe the dead won't remain the cold
Bury me with souls lost in vacant bones (Woah)
Is this as far as I can go? (Lead us home)
Bury me with souls lost in vacant bones
