

Convince Me To Bleed

Ghost Bath

Bring me your ashes, gather your tears
I feast on the remnants of your worries and fears

Present me your love, display your affection, detest
My hopelessness, ignore my deflection, inflict
With your hatred, it's just what I need
Force me to care, convince me to bleed

With your hatred, it's just what I need
Force me to care, convince me to bleed

Suffocate until I no longer breathe
Together we can be free

Life, why have you forsaken me?
Force me to exist, to be
A deceiver, an enemy

Present me your love, display your affection, detest
My hopelessness, ignore my deflection, inflict
