

The Alchemist

Ghost Mice

The universe will conspire with you
To help you do the things you want to do
There are no devils down in hell
That wish for you to fail, no
Your worst enemy is you

You've got to find your path and follow it
And your path will become clear
Don't you stray, don't waste a day
Don't give into your fears
And you will see that the world wants you to win
If anyone tells you differently
That person's not your friend
And you should get away from them while you can
Because they've given up and they'll bring you down with them

They've given up and they'll bring you down with them

You! You don't have to be the one
To defeat that evil king
And to set your people free
But you could
If that's what you want to do
And we would all hug you
And then you would see
That the world is not your enemy
And the point of life is to chase your dreams
And as long as you can breathe
And as long as your heart beats
Then those dreams can be achieved!
