

All That She Wanted

Ghost of the Robot

Now she's gone, alone again
You made her cry, now you win
Made her leave, no "goodbye"
She made you mad, don't know why

and All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
was you

You miss her hair on her skin She'll never see you again
And all the tears you're gonna cry She'll never see them in your eye

and All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
was you

and All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
was you

She has such sweet strawberry wine inside and we have something more than we had last night

Now she's gone, alone again
You made her cry, now you win
Ain't it strange how you find The love inside after "goodbye"

and All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
was you

and All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
was you

All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
was you

and All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
was you

All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
All That She Wanted
was you
