

Hell

Ghost Town

Forget who you thought I was
Both a hero and a villain
Left for dead, moving on
Now I'm drinking to forget it, forget it...
Making a difference in the dark
Crossing paths with broken hearts
I tried living life without a sin
Truth be told, it's pretty boring, boring...

Been through hell
Thought that I would kill myself
So...

Watch me burn it to the ground
Hope your God can save you now
Ohh...
I won't, I won't be a part of this

Father, Son, and Holy Ghost
Hope you know who loves you most
Ohh...
I won't, I won't be a part of this

Raised to be innocent
But this world is unforgiving
Yeah...
Fucking inconsiderate
Fighting to find myself in it, in it...
Well, if this is coming to an end
Will you remember my story?
Yeah...
Sold my soul to the moon
So that I could live forever... and ever

Been through hell
Thought that I would kill myself
So...

Watch me burn it to the ground
Hope your God can save you now
Ohh...
I won't, I won't be a part of this

Father, Son, and Holy Ghost
Hope you know who loves you most
Ohh...
I won't, I won't be a part of this

Somewhere in between predictable and invisible
Thought I was invincible

Somewhere in between fire and ice
What is wrong and right?
Had to burn it down to see the light

Been through hell
Thought that I would kill myself

So...

Watch me burn it to the ground
Hope your God can save you now
Ohh...
I won't, I won't be a part of this

Father, Son, and Holy Ghost
Hope you know who loves you most
Ohh...
I won't, I won't be a part of this
