Kali Yuga

Ghostemane

I used to have a bitch
Now she ain't shit
I burned that black track jacket that I ate her in
I copped a new one cuz I finally got a little ends
Just leave me alone, leave me alone
I'm tryin' not to sin
I'm tryin' to find a way up out of this fucking rut I'm in
I thought about taking my life on periscope but thought again
I'm reading shit from kids that tell me they just wanna quit
You're not alone, not alone
I feel like dying
I'm waking up alone and trying to find a reason why
To get up out my sheets and go on outside and feel daylight
Please tell me why I'm feelin' this way all the sudden I was so fine
But what goes up inevitably comes down and things divide
Y'all think I worship Satan? Bitch I am a Thelemite
Do what thou wilt, no dogma can close my wide open eyes
I'm sick of humankind I'm always looking at the sky
I know no god is present but it doesn't hurt to try

No Love
No Life
Deep in abyss I creep
No sleep till I'm mothafuckin' six feet deep I'ma keep lowkey
No Love
No Life
Never mind cremate me
Scatter my ashes all over the Mediterranean Sea
No Love
No Life
Deep in abyss I creep
No sleep till I'm mothafuckin' six feet deep I'ma keep lowkey
No Love
No Life
Never mind cremate me
Scatter my ashes all over the Mediterranean Sea
