

Not/Whats/Hot

Ghostemane

I am not what's hot
Not what's hot
Not what's not what's not what
I am not what's hot not what's hot right now

I am not what's hot
Not what's hot
Not what's not what's not what
I am not what's hot not what's hot right now

People think they know bout the Ghoste, but they really don't Know shit that's in my soul and
All my thoughts are cold to the bone
They be askin' me when I am finna blow and
I told them I don't give a fuck bout what the future hold

People think they know bout the Ghoste, but they really don't Know shit that's in my soul and
All my thoughts are cold to the bone
They be askin' me when I am finna blow and
I told them I don't give a fuck bout what the future hold

Motherfuckers walkin' down, actin like they practice loyalty
When I be the kid that's living life like I was royalty
I do not pay any mind to the kind of bitches that be diggin' for gold
And turn they dirty rags into riches

Everybody know it's the mane to the ghoste
Never been no trend
Never been no fad
I will never lose a minute of sleep
If a little swag fag ain't fuckin' with a KREEP
I'm ridin' for me and me only
When I meditate I use a way to replace what a bunny got a face or a name or a place to be
Or hate on me
Then I come back to Earth and I'm ready to squeeze
If you so bad why don't you take your mask off?
Instead of hidin' in the back hall with a tampon
Got a bleedin' asshole
Better back off
Don't you make him back off
Fuck him with a mag dong
If I want to blast off
Ate a bunch of bad salt
Now I'm ready to bust some motherfuckers open
I see you talkin' all of that shit as if I see you, but I don't keep a micro scope on me crew

I am not what's hot
Not what's hot
Not what's not what's not what
I am not what's hot not what's hot right now
I am I am not what's hot not what's hot not what's
I am I am I am not what's hot not what's hot right now
I am I am not what's hot not what's hot not what's not what's not what I am not what's hot not what's hot right now

I am I am not what's hot not what's hot not what's
I am I am I am not what's hot not what's hot right now
