Rake

Ghostemane

I will fist you in a fucking gutter, go away
I'm so sick of waking up, I just might fucking stop
I've got red on my fingertips and I'll stay cursed till I fucking drop

Every morning feel like hell again
Fucking everything up, I don't know where to begin
Paralyzed, heartache took a toll on me again
Then I found a pretty bitch with that ghost white skin
Casper annihilate me till I'm dead
I need something to believe in again
I'm but a shell of myself with no head
I see it rolling away from me right into those (hands)
Fuck till my dick fall off, aye
Ate her till my face went numb
Hand around her throat, watch her pupils blacken
Then I'm back up in her soul till the cum flow go then her face go
Red
Aye, nails on my chest, blood flow
Shawty had me looking like a Freddy victim

1, 2, 3, go

One by one, you're all going down
I'll make you see
Traveling alone since birth and
I've never felt so liberated

Fuck
