Tired but I put on my new show
Same shit but a new episode
Tired but I put on ninja scroll
Fuck then I pass out on the floor

Tired but I put on my new show
Same shit but a new episode
Tired but I put on ninja scroll
Fuck then I pass out on the floor

Die like I wanna go
Fly on the west side
But them bitches so fine on the east side
Fly like I'm on it
I'm only goin to the corner
To cop a Look at opponents
Got my katana a bonus
I level up in the forest
I'm choppin up all my foes
And now I don't wanna see home
I wanna stay In this place
About a minute went by
Since the very last time
I thought of murder you can say I'm gettin better with time
Versace pip in his prime
Controlling all of your minds
Like all the shit that you read and regurgitate online

Now if you're reading this shit I want you to smile inside
Remember you can't see everything with your 2 eyes
We spend all of our time lookin for a reason to die
If you made it to a minute 35 then you'll be alright
