Hello, Hello, er Hello
Hello, Hello, er Hello
Hello, Hello, er Hello
Hello, Hello, er Hello
Hello, Hello, er Hello

Take me away
From the clutches of the ones that wish me harm
I can't stay
This place just ain't a paradise to me
So here we are
Spinning around, and around, and around
You're giddy in hate
But when is it enough?
It's more than enough
And now it feels enough

You won't miss me when I'm gone
I promise you, I promise you
For some reason
I was elusive for a minute there
You won't miss me when I'm gone
I promise you, I promise you
For some reason
I was elusive for a minute there

I can't feed myself
Dark falls frequent when I'm alone
I was once your superman
Now I'm just bones
Woman eyes
Less life as the sun goes down
On the eve of my life
As they sharpen their knives
I won't go without a fight
Swinging these limbs
Reciting hymns
Forgive my sins

Don't forget me
Trying not to
You complete me
You're still fading
Don't forget me
Trying not to
You complete me
You're still fading
Don't forget me
Trying not to
You complete me
You're still fading
Don't forget me
Trying not to
You complete me
But you're still fading
Don't forget me
Trying not to

You complete me
You're still fading
Don't forget me
Trying not to
You complete me
But you're still fading
