

Who Knows?

Ghostpoet

What's up?
Here's my keynoter
This scene, that scene, them scenes
Just so cutthroat

I had to dip for a sec
Have you missed me yet? Hmph
The world's just gone insane
What's the endgame?

'Cause I don't know, you don't know, they don't know, whoa
Fucking hell, who knows? Hm
I don't know, you don't know, they don't know, whoa
Fucking hell, who knows? Hm

Catch, check, check
Check the news
All these fucking lies, watch the news
Those ones take your jobs, keep them out
Those ones want your coins, fling them out
What's the point?
We're safe when you're black, someone point
Map ting, point it out, send a pin
Pop by his tape to fly, start again

Oh nah, nah, cut me out
Running so long man, the road's run out
Soul's worn thin, I'm needing the booze
But the devil won't grant me a truce
I grin tooth, I try to keep my mind loose
But my confidence goes like poof
Like my youth, born in 1983
Tryna work out what's coming next for me

'Cause I don't know, you don't know, they don't know, whoa
Fucking hell, who knows? Hm
I don't know, you don't know, they don't know, whoa
Fucking hell, who knows? who knows?
Who knows? Who knows? Who knows? Who knows?
Who knows? Who knows?
