After 2

Ghoultown

neon glow
the dive was alive there were four on the floor by the time I arrived she slithered up to me – up my spine so I bought her a drink and fed her a line

her hair was black as the night she had long perfect legs and a gleam between her thighs ten blood-red fingernails so I followed the signs that said 'straight to hell'

chorus:
I finally found my angel yes I finally found the truth that your soul is unforgiven if you love what you do so damned be salvation when it looks as good as you I'll just have to pay the price and dance with you
after 2

with dawn came the end of the night and once more she came with a siren's cry then she was gone with her prize too bad it seems my heart ain't as big as my eyes
