

Devil's Comin' 'Round

Ghoultown

Lie down, lie down
they say the devil's comin round all wicked men are gonna hang it's the law of the land there's a bounty on my head and I hear him comin for me

I was drunk, it was dark when I stabbed you right through the heart I felt the wind, I felt the rain I felt a chill down in my veins

There was black there was red a feeling of dread
in those tears that were shed

No one ever knows what darkness can hold there ain't no salvation in regret

Ref:

Lie down lie down
they say the devil's comin round pray that he doesn't come for me he's the law of the land there's a sixgun in his hand Lord, will I ever be set free?

I was born, a bastard son like my mom, I had no love my troubled life is all I had only shame, pain and regret

There was black there was red
a feeling of dread
now I face the law of the land

In black and white no question that night there ain't no raisin' the dead

Ref:

Lie down lie down
they say the devil's comin round
all wicked men are gonna hang
it's the law of the land
there's a bounty on my head
and I hear him comin for me
