

Southern Son

Ghoultown

So long, you've been waiting for this day
Pull the reins, break the chains, it's time to have your say
You've been running for so long
It's time to stop and take a stand, be steady and be strong

Each day it grows a little darker
With each night misunderstood
Ghost of the past still haunting
It just goes on and on and on

Burn, burn southern sky
You've got the fire of midnight in your eyes
Burn, burn southern soul
Soon they will know you are the one
Years gone, the future's in the past
Deeds are done, the time is come, now it's moving fast
Ride hard, the battery of hooves
Striking distance, turn and face, time to take what's yours

Each day it grows a little hotter
With each hour come to pass
Sins of the father still following you

It just goes on and on and on

Burn, burn southern sky
You've got the fire of midnight in your eyes
Burn, burn southern soul
Soon they will know you are the one
You are the one

No one can ever hold you down
Respect is all you ever need, listen to the crowd
Fight on, the night is just begun
The price is paid, don't be afraid, it's in your blood

Each day it grows a little darker
With each night misunderstood
Ghost of the past still haunting you
It just goes on and on and on
Burn, burn southern sky
You've got the fire of midnight in your eyes
Burn, burn southern soul
Soon they will know you are the one
You are the one

Southern son
You are the one
Southern son
