Do you remember you remember
Remember what you said (said)
Even though you told me you'd always be by my side
Don't you remember you remember
Remember what you said (said)
It's like you've changed into a completely different person

The world is blue, all of it
Is this true? it's not a lie
The end of my boo boo-boo
Lonely life, ok
I don't want this dampened love
I want you to be ruined, I can't hold back
The end of my boo boo-boo lonely life
Bye bye

As though running away
As though in denial
You turned your back
I woke up at last
And laughed in disgust
The thread is broken

I will forget you, woo woo woo
We won't meet again, so don't look back
I will erase you, woo woo woo
We won't meet again, so don't look back

Do you remember you remember
Remember what you said (said)
All you did was stand still and let go
Don't you remember you remember
Remember what you said (said)
Yet, I'm still holding on to these smouldering feelings

Yeah, you
You were just playing with me
Even so, I still believed you like a fool
All of it was a lie
You manipulated me as you pleased
"He's not a good man"
My mother had said, and I finally understood
This love burned up and fell down like garbage
So I erased all of it from my memory

Made into a fool
And looked down upon
I finally realised your attitude towards me
I don't regret it
I'm not even sad
I just want to turn back time

Goodbye, woo woo woo
It ends here, so don't look back
I won't hesitate, woo woo woo
It ends here, so don't look back

All of the wasted time, and
All of my broken pieces
My regrets and my loneliness, I'll give them to you
Even if you came back to me
There won't be any place for you
Because everything is over

I will forget you, woo woo woo
We won't meet again, so don't look back
I will erase you, woo woo woo
We won't meet again, so don't look back
