

100 mg

Giant Rooks

Speak to me
Unknown and open
Maybe some day
I'll fade into the answers then
I'm gonna feel it in the sun and I'm gonna see it
When my spirits are on the run
Now with pills of 100 milligram

Once in a lifetime I'll flip the coin
'Cause the way that we'll go
Is a way that we already know
Are you waiting, are you waiting, are you waiting?

You're gonna leave when the mornin' comes
And I'm gonna see it when my spirits are on the run
Now with pills of 100 milligram
Picturesque waves slowly erase
My mind is the low tide
In your dreams I pulled you out to sea
It's nothing to deny

Once in a lifetime I'll flip the coin
'Cause the way that we go is a way that we already know
Are you waiting, are you waiting, are you waiting?
And nothing stays
Once in a lifetime I'll flip the coin
'Cause the way that we go is a way that we already know
Are you waiting, are you waiting, are you waiting?
And nothing stays

By the seaside
There was you
There was me
And I understood you're my island in a dark sea

Once in a lifetime I'll flip the coin
'Cause the way that we go is a way that we already know
Are you waiting, are you waiting, are you waiting?
Nothing stays
Once in a lifetime
I'll flip the coin
'Cause wherever we go
There's a place that we already know
Are you waiting, are you waiting, are you waiting?

I'll fade into the answers some day
Fade into the answers some day
I'll fade into the answers some day
Speak to me unknown and open
I'll fade into the answers some day
Fade into the, the answers some day
I'll fade into the answers some day
Are you waiting, waiting for me?
