

Morning Blue

Giant Rooks

It's not worth the mention, the way I feel
Oh, I just kinda hope that wasn't real
Starting the engine every single day, huh
But everywhere I go, I couldn't stay

It's just a daydream, it's not what it seems Intoxicating, hallucinating
I keep on changing to make a statement
I gotta go, I gotta go, I gotta go

You know I'll be on my way-ay-ay-ay to you
I wanna feel like I'm supposed to
Sending shivers down my spine
I'm on my back, you on my mind
Get away-ay-ay in the morning blue
But I can't get over you
(But I can't get over you)

I can feel the tension running through my veins
Oh, I been feeding myself to the flame
If I pay close attention I can make it last
But I can't form a thought inside my head

Too much at stake here, I cannot stay in
I gotta go, I gotta go, I gotta go

You know I'll be on my way-ay-ay-ay to you
I wanna feel like I'm supposed to
Sending shivers down my spine
I'm on my back, you on my mind
Get away-ay-ay in the morning blue
But I can't get over you
But I can't get over you

Oh we have come so far but couldn't reach the stars
Oh no we're still too far, too far away
Oh we have come so far but couldn't reach the stars
Oh no we're still too far

I'll be on my way-ay-ay-ay to you
I wanna feel like I'm supposed to
Sending shivers down my spine
I'm on my back, you on my mind
Get away-ay-ay
Get away-ay-ay in the morning blue
But I can't get over you
(But I can't get over you)
But I can't get over you

Oh we have come so far but couldn't reach the stars
Oh no we're still too far, too far away
Oh we have come so far but couldn't reach the stars
Oh no we're still too far

Too far away-ay-ay-ay
Too far away-ay-ay-ay
