

The Birth Of Worlds

Giant Rooks

When you were hiding in the nest
What did I do to make you feel some hope?
When it was time to leave the heights
We tried to stay close but then we lost it all

We faint
We faint
The birth of worlds
The birth of worlds

Say you're tumbling down
I want you to know
You're not on your own
One day we'll put our stones on the shore
We both used to think
We won't end up completely unknown

We faint (you are)
We faint (you are)
The birth of worlds
The birth of worlds

The apple of my eye turns red
Explosions in the sky
Signs you've sent
We're alone, we're alone
And always will be

I don't believe in life after death
There isn't such a thing as regret
I'll get along, I'll get along
Hope you can see

Ooh (Ooh)
Ooh (Ooh)
Ooh
Ooh (Ooh)
