

LIFE WITHOUT

Gideon

Looked at me with a dead eyed stare
No time to spare a second for a silent prayer
Face is blue, you won't come to
Can't even imagine a life without you

No, you wanna take him but he can't leave
Face to face, with the devil, it can't be
Numb from the tip of my tongue to my feet
Only the sound of my chattering teeth
Keep your head up, I need to know you're alive
Come on get up, breathe life survive
Lost sleep that night
Thinking of what you said to me

I asked him, what did you see? (What did you see?)
What did you see? (What did you see?)

He said, nothing
Absent of all things real to me
Lonely (So lonely)
Darkness consuming
With a failing heart (With a failing heart)
My life crashed before me
I saw no light
Became a memory

So that's it, over in an instant
In the end, is it really just, dark and distant?
Life and death, held by a single golden thread
One moment you're here, and the next you're not
You fucking disappear

Stare through me
You stepped away
Gone to somewhere, somewhere between
And I can't do anything

I asked him, what did you see? (What did you see?)
What did you see? (What did you see?)

He said, nothing
So lonely
Darkness consuming
With a failing heart (With a failing heart)
My life crashed before me
I saw no light
Became a memory

So that's it
Over and over again
We enter consciousness
Oblivious to the exit
Life and death
They ain't so black and white
We just might see the light
Or maybe nothing
No, nothing at all
