

Off The Rails

Gideon

Can you see the truth behind my eyes?
Something calling from the inside
It pushes and pulls me back
It's a deafening silence
Piercing like a siren
It feels like I'm under attack

Panic, rage, isolation
Manic based hallucinations
Paranoid, paranoid
I just want to take my life back

I'm about to go
Off the rails
Headed southbound
And straight to hell
Tried to stop this train
But I'm afraid it's too damn late
Yeah, I know just just where I'm headed
Off the rails

Somebody stop me

I couldn't be the one that you designed
Something told me from the inside
To leave and don't look back
In fear of defiance
I stayed in compliance
Obeying and scared to react

Paranoid, paranoid
I just want to take my life back

I'm about to go
Off the rails
Headed southbound
And straight to hell
Tried to stop this train
But I'm afraid it's too damn late
Yeah I know just where I'm headed
Off the rails

There's nothing you can say
Lord knows, you tried to stop me
But don't stand in my way
'Cause you know there ain't no stopping
When the engine's hot
And the reaper is calling
The reaper is calling
