

Pulling Teeth

Gideon

Traitor, I used to call you friend, and I let you in, but now the ones
I love have become strangers, I will never trust again,
You won the battle, but this is my war,
It's not the end,

You won the battle, but this is my war,
It's not the end,
This is a call for revenge, I pledge my allegiance, bound to vengeance,
This is a call for revenge, you won the battle, but this is my war,
It's not the end,

This is overdue,
Don't be confused,
This is not an apology,
I want you to feel the pain you put me through,
(But you're afraid to acknowledge me),
So alone, no hope,
No peace, just cope,
You call out for help,
But no one is home,

Living in my own mind,
I've been trying to find,
The last nail in the casket,
Will I ever learn to forgive and forget,
I tried to bury the hatchet,
But it's buried deep inside my back,

Traitor, I used to call you friend, and I let you in, but now the ones
I love have become strangers, I will never trust again,
You won the battle, but this is my war,
It's not the end,

And I'll be damned if I let you win,
This is a call for revenge,
I pledge my allegiance,
Bound to vengeance,
Bound to vengeance,
I can't escape these memories,
I'm bound, bound to vengeance,

I've been trying to find,
The last nail in the casket,
Will I ever learn to forgive and forget,
I tried to bury the hatchet,
But it's buried deep, deep inside my back,

Lay it to rest,
It's like pulling teeth,
Trying to forget what you did to me,
The last nail in the casket,
Lay it to rest,

Lay it to rest,
It's like pulling teeth,
Trying to forget what you took from me,
The last nail in the casket,

Lay it to rest.
