

At The Beach, In Every Life

Gigi Perez

Saw it by the water
Doing all the things for the better
Then I watched you send it back into the ring
And I heard about the twister
That lives inside your heart
If you speak, then I would move
Then I would run right where you are

Then I ripped on through your blouse
As it ripped right through my house
I never knew, I never knew you had such a filthy mouth
But you love me like my mother
And you kiss me like your wife
And I swear to you, I'll give you more than I have tonight

'Cause the wolves are at my neck
I can't talk about that yet
They've got shit inside those hearts
One day, they'll have to repent
On judgment day, they'll be glued right to the bed
And you'll look and tell me, "Baby, you remember what I said?"

"I know who you are
You'll be fine
I know who you are
'Cause you're mine"

There, I saw you standing
Must've been a holy light
'Cause I can't see, and I can't feel
But the color in your eyes are saying
If my dreams come up empty, and I wash up on the shore
You would find me at the beach, in every life, through every door
With a boombox at your father's, walking with you at the morgue
You don't have to search when I know everything you're looking for Oh, we could talk about it or just stare at the wall
But I think that you know better than what they think they call

A luminary no one
Is all they'll ever be
And how could you be no one
When you're everything to me?
You're everything to me
You're everything to me
You're everything to me

Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Oh, oh
