Fable and truth

Direct me to someone who gives me the juice and new rules
Someone to tell me we're not born to be mules in this Everything, it contradicts

Hedges of prayer

'Cause you believe, doesn't mean that it's there, it's so rare
It's so rare that somebody'd look out for you (Look out for you
, look out for you)
Thoughts and prayers was all they'd do (All they'd do, they'd do
, they'd do, they'd do)

When I lifted her urn

Divinity says, "Destiny can't be earned or returned"
I feel when I question my skin starts to burn
Why does my skin start to burn?

Ah-ah, capital loss

Love was the law and religion was taught, I'm not bought
Feel when we argue our skin starts to rot
Our skin starts to rot

Oh (Hi, um, hi, these are my two sisters)

(This is going on YouTube so don't embarrass me)

(Okay, let me show them my real face)

Oh (You can sing any song you want)

(Give me the camera, give me the camera, give me the camera)

(You start singing, Mama, you start singing, Mama)

(Ah, okay)

(Sing a song, okay)

So share me your plan

If I implore you, could I be your lamb? Understand
I look for the truth in the back of your hand, and I
Look into the open sky

Stars blink like my sister's eyes (Hey, princess, it's Celi, I' m just calling you to wish you luck on your performance at the café)

Stars blink like my sister's eyes (Um, I love you, you're gonna kill it, bye, baby)

Stars blink like her eyes

Like her eyes

I dream of eternal life

I dream of eternal life
