

School Meals

Gilbert O'Sullivan

I ain't eating any more school meals
I ain't eating nothing at all
Teacher said to me son you're truly
One who must decline and fall

So take your reservation and shove it
Shove it somewhere up a side
Don't ask me where but
Butt is probably where up
Where up it ought to reside

I ain't eating any more scuse me
Did you hear what I just said
I won't let the idiots rule me
Fill their pencils full of lead

I ain't eating any more school meals
I ain't eating nothing no more
Had enough of knowing how I feel
How I feel knowing we're poor

Who cares if everyday I go hungry
Rather that then have to face
Telling the teacher I get dinners free sir
Only one who never pays

So I ain't eating any more school meals
I ain't eating nothing at all
Had enough embarrassment truly
Every time my name gets called

Ok, so I appear to be headstrong
Does it matter anyway
Having to write lines
Many hundreds of times
Is a price I'll gladly pay

So I ain't eating any more school meals
I ain't eating nothing at all
Had enough of being unruly
Not enough as I recall
