

Speaking of Which

Gilbert O'Sullivan

Put up or shut up that's the key
Talk of a failure and out you'll be
Speaking of which, then before a match
Make sure your whistle is up to scratch

Low expectations are at best
All that at times you need
That's not to say at first
You won't succeed

Cross party talks now taking place
On the agenda our violent ways
Speaking of which, now more and more
What's ever civil about a war

Proof of the pudding agree
Isn't in what you smell
Not that a whiff of
Doesn't go down well

You now see people who join a group
But not as in a band
Their aim is simply to change the world
To one they see as being Islam

You saying hard drugs can be soft
A bit like a landing being like a loft
Speaking of which in Holland you'll find
Cafes there truly can blow your mind

As for the future, who's to say
Going the way we've gone
Terrorists won't secure
A nuclear bomb
