

Heart Of Chrome

Gilby Clarke

My souls on the line, I'm getting tired of begging
The Devil's sliding in and I can feel my heart pounding
I fear the new church and I worship no man
I'm the lord of my life and I'm mad as hell for suffering
I ain't breaking down anymore
Like dead weight lying on the floor

In my Heart Of Chrome, Surrounded by pain
There's a method to my madness, survival by faith
In my Heart Of Chrome, Surrounded by pain
In my Heart of Chrome is who I am

It's a cruel punishment survival in hell
The power of sin is the loss of innocence
I fear the new church and I worship no one
I'm the lord of my life and I'm mad as hell for suffering
I ain't breaking down anymore
Like dead weight lying on the floor
