

The Devil's Daughter

Gin Blossoms

I want to fuck the devil's daughter, she is really a good girl
I can't help it that I want her, devil powers cast a spell
She's got a great tattoo of an angel and a guitar she stole from heaven

With a stack of Marshall amps that are all cranked up to 11

She's the picture of innocence and the demon in my nightmare
She's the dawn of my apocalypse and the answer to my prayer

I'm coming over drunk and horny, I really want to strut my stuff

But I'm coked up so I'm warning, I can't always keep it up
All this time I thought she liked me, she's just scheming for my soul

Now her fire's got me burning, sinking deeper in this hole

She's the picture of innocence and the demon in my nightmare
She's the dawn of my apocalypse and the answer to my prayer

I want to fuck the devil's daughter, she is really a good girl
I can't help it that I want her, devil powers cast a spell

With a stack of Marshall amps that are all cranked up to 11

She's the picture of innocence and the demon in my nightmare
