

Angelfire

Gin Wigmore

Starlight or star-fighter
Are you ready to go now
Are you dying to wonder
Singin' oh

So a mountain creeps across my face
Expressions come out like a roll of toothpaste
And bruised faces don't see the day
They see a twist of hand and then a twist of fate, oh
Where to go to and who to turn to
A violent face is surrounding me

Starlight or star-fighter
Are you ready to go now
Are you dying to wonder Singin'
Angel light or my angelfire
Are you ready to beat me
Are you trying to free me
Singin' oh

Lonely teardrops roll gently down my face
Falling to the ground without a trace
And try to break free but you don't seem to see
I see the door, now I'm leaving
And broken vases and broken flowers
Everything is different now, now that I'm gone

Starlight or star-fighter
Are you ready to go now
Are you dying to wonder Singin'
Angel light or my angelfire
Are you ready to beat me
Are you trying to free me

Starlight or star-fighter
Are you ready to go now
Are you dying to wonder Singin'
Angel light or my angelfire
Are you ready to beat me
Are you trying to free me
Singin' oh

Don't you see I'm leaving (My angelfire)
Don't you see I'm going (My angelfire)
And don't you see I'm dying (My angelfire)
Oh, goodbye now (My angelfire)
Don't you see I'm leaving (My angelfire)
Don't you see I'm going (My angelfire)
And don't you see I'm dying (My angelfire)
Oh, goodbye now (My angelfire)
