

I will

Gin Wigmore

Oh, let me fold into you
Feel the weigh of your skin.
I'll be the warm place to hide
Where nobody can get in
I think you like it
here in my arms

Don't let our head decided who we are
I think I found all I can wish for and then some

I will love you
I will love you
Until the blood all leaves these veins

Don't you let us
Don't you let us
Lose to an early grave

Give me a life time
And then fifty more
To find the words
That will never explain

How I need you
How I see you
How you are Everything
That I have

You are the fire to my thoughts
The spark that starts it all
And with your Eyes you can move me to your world
so far apart

If you die before I do
I know that heartache will kill me too
So if I ever lived again,
It will be to find you

Where I can love you
I will love you
Until the blood all leaves these veins

Don't you let us
Don't you let us
Lose to an early grave

Give me a life time
And then fifty more
To find the words
That will never explain

How I need you
How I see you
How you are

Everything
That I have
