

And these tapes, uh, they only cost a dollar sixty-nine for three sixty minute tapes, so that's pretty good, so I think it's worth it, so I bought uh, like, four, four, uh, packs of them... So that's like, the s- the same tapes, cause that's pretty good, you're better off sending a tape than writing because, like, I'm telling everybody else, when you write a letter and you wanna say something, but if it's too long you don't write it. Or, you know, you don't get the true meaning out of it, so in the tape you can just mess around with, you can screw it up, you know, you make mistakes, you make mistakes or whatever, and it has a lot more meaning, you get to really kinda [?], 'cause usually it's a lot more interesting... I'll just have to go to the post office and find, you know, sign up [?] but then I just have to find a post office that I know my way around or I could get in trouble, okay?
