

Loretta

Ginger Root

Loretta, I see you walking now and then
Loretta, I see you coming near

Why's it oh so hard to turn back and finally whisper
How are we supposed to carry on?
Well I've got to, for now

Forget her, and everything she said, she lied
I met her morning, noon and night
Well I'd say I fooled ya
So, Loretta, you never won the fight

Why's it oh so hard to turn back and finally whisper
How are we supposed to carry on?
Well I've got to, for now

(Loretta, I've got to)
(Loretta, I've got to)
(Loretta, I've got to)
(Loretta)
