Walk on air and then you'll know
Tell me where and when I'll go
Get rid of the things I hold

Well, I can't make it, I'm so frustrated
On tryin' getting to the top
And I might hate it and feel so dated
I can't help but feel it out

Tell your friends and those you dear
The second wave is drawing near
Nominated for the year

Well, I can't make it, I'm so frustrated
On tryin' getting to the top
And I might hate it and feel so dated
I can't help but feel it out

My time is time I'm looking to celebrate
My time is the one to keep up, to keep up
To keep up

Well, I can't make it, I'm so frustrated
And I might hate it, and feel so dated
My time is short, but I'm sure not wasted
I'd like to thank the ones nominated
