

Slump

Ginger Root

You've been there, they've done that
So why come back and run around the same track?

We all are afraid of the slump
I can't see you on the run
Tell the kids I say goodbye!

You're forewarned, but half-baked
Upon your kingdom built up on an earthquake

We all are afraid of the slump
I can't see you, so good luck!
I can't see you on the run
I can't see, can't see you

I should stop this, cut the profits
Use it as you want
You should stop this, cut the profits
Use it as you want
We can stop this, cut the profits
Use it as you want
We can stop this, cut the profits
Use it as you want, you want

We all are afraid of the slump
I can't see you on the run
So tell the kids I say goodbye!
