

You can never say I changed
You could never say I switched up
I done bought the diamond rings
A little whip that I just picked up
It don't matter 'bout the things when we look up the big picture but it's cr opped
And lately we forgot
Rock with time until it stops
It's unsettling ain't it
This ain't the thought that you once drafted, ain't the picture we painted Got this anger built up in me won't release I'm restraining
And now I'm stuck here complaining when I should be locked in creating It's like I

Been moving since you changed
I need a source that ain't gon' switch up
Tried to stay the same
There ain't no telling when I'll get up
Memories deep inside I cannot lie I'm feeling messed up
Got me thinking this a set up
I can't even keep my head up
I'm wondering why
It's been so dang hard to choose and pick a side
Got me feelin' so confused can't even lie
Until I went and heard the truth
Looked to the sky
So tell me why

I don't know why I been stressin'
Showed me home it ain't no Westin
Been a dark night but there's greater light on the other side of Heaven
Can't you tell the mood switched up when I locked eyes with perfection
Home team with the whole gang and we all holding up s, s, s
Sevens, seven, seven, seven
Home team with the whole gang and we all holding up s, s, s
Sevens, seven, seven, seven
Home team with the whole gang and we all holding up

Aye, He came out the blue He lifted me up
It's six!
I'm throwing up seven it's Him that I want
It's Him it's Him that I trust
JC the one and the only the OG go on say what you want
Go and talk your talk
But you best repent before you turn to dust
I grind real hard so I'm live
Lifestyle got 'em saying six nice
I'm the hand and feet and He gives me the seeds that I plant so they multipl y
Perfect, perfect, everything perfect
Why?
Cause He sacrificed
And He gave me the cheat code outta the darkness so I gotta pick a side
I'm wondering why
It's been so dang hard to choose and pick a side
Got me feelin' so confused can't even lie
Until I went and heard the truth

Looked to the sky
So tell me why

I don't know why I been stressin'
Showed me home it ain't no Westin
