

AMEN!

Gio

(One, two, three)

Lord, I see Your blessings every day
Lord, I know that You gon' make a way
More of You is what I want today
And if you can relate, then let the people say

Amen, amen
I wake up every day and lift my hands and say
Amen, amen, amen, amen, amen

Aye, we all tryna make it in the same way
Yeah, me and all my homies on the same page
I spent my whole life in the low light tryna chase fame
Until I realized it ain't something I can maintain Okay, so what's the point? What you workin' for? I got goals that I can't ignore
Toby hit me like last week and it's something I'm being grateful towards Steady learning what greatness hoards, leaving baggage right at that door
I'm aware that I'm made for more, all that goodness You have in store
Ni hao, can't you see now I got plenty goals?
Be loud, we can't be bound, we gon' make it known
Don't you realize this a war cry to the prodigals?
Get up on our feet, let us scream it to the street like

Lord, I see Your blessings every day
Lord, I know that You gon' make a way
More of You is what I want today
And if you can relate, then let the people say

Amen, amen
I wake up every day and lift my hands and say
Amen, amen, amen, amen, amen

Aye, I just locked in forty days, I heard the winter's coming
Is it sleep if you ain't rest and prep the blessings coming?
Told my dawg it's time to eat, so we gon' feast on somethin'
It's His word, that daily bread like it's a baker's dozen
Hit the ground my ankles runnin', Holy Spirit onto something
All these goals and dreams ain't got no means if it ain't for Your covenant
Unc told me believe and then you'll see that there's a blessing coming
I ain't really into numbing, Jesus got me in His covering

Lord, I see Your blessings every day
Lord, I know that You gon' make a way
More of You is what I want today
And if you can relate, then let the people say

Amen, amen
I wake up every day and lift my hands and say
Amen, amen, amen, amen, amen

I wake up every day and lift my hands and say
Amen, amen, amen, amen, amen
