

Control

Gio

Ok now that's just how it's 'spose to be
The pressure of the rollin' sea
I can't hold this weight
Oh God, I pray that you still holding me
Too much on my plate
Oh God, I'm trying not to over eat
My problems way too big I reach for you when things are over me
Cuz I know
You just want it all you want some control
But you just gotta trust I pray you lay low
It's not your hands it's all gon' unfold
All gon' unfold

You'll make a way
I pray you take away this pain
Feel like my life is a lie
Pray you don't leave me astray
Sometimes I just wanna fly away but I gotta stay
Tryna figure out I build a house and put the bricks where I lay
I guess I'm overthinking way too much I gotta learn to stop
My head is over spinnin' always trippin' thinking 'bout the top
But I'm forgetting what I got
I been too busy tryna pop
Man I don't know what's gotten into me this all gon' make me flop
Oh, oh, oh
God, I need your help I'm weak alone
Losing on my grip please take control
Can't do this nah can't do this alone
Alone

Ok now that's just how it's 'spose to be
The pressure of the rollin' sea
I can't hold this weight
Oh God, I pray that you still holding me
Too much on my plate
Oh God, I'm trying not to over eat
My problems way too big I reach for you when things are over me
Cuz I know
You just want it all you want some control
But you just gotta trust I pray you lay low
It's not your hands it's all gon' unfold
All gon' unfold

Ok now don't lose control
I keep my eyes on the road
I try so hard to keep things up but often it's hard to hold
I feel like everything is frozen
Hope my heart won't turn cold
My back against the wall I'm stuck I pray that I never fold
I walk by faith and not by sight
I give my life to you
I dream through sleepless nights
I can't deny the truth
I know I gotta believe
I'm in constant need of your peace

Ok now that's just how it's 'spose to be

The pressure of the rollin' sea
I can't hold this weight
Oh God, I pray that you still holding me
Pray that you still holding me
