

do u know my name?

Gio

Lil shorty do you know my name
Cuz I ain't tryna play no games
Been too high it don't feel the same
To be honest I'm the one to blame
Cuz I barely know you how you even know me
With the white-out vans and the blacktop jeep
Yea, I did this once I ain't tryna repeat, did this once I ain't tryna repeat

Yea, I caught feelings way too fast
Drop top in a coop might crash
I ain't even tryna shoot then dash
I'm just lookin' for some fun and the one that lasts
Will you be the one for me
Find the one you see
I been chasin' tryna find good company
Every step I take it's like you run from me
I been tryna keep yo status under me girl
You never listen or pay attention to feelings I feel
I end up missin' and stressin' over the things I deal with Could you say my name real quick
Cuz I don't wanna feel like this
If you pass that rock would I hit my shot do you think I'd still miss

Lil shorty do you know my name
Cuz I ain't tryna play no games
Been too high it don't feel the same
To be honest I'm the one to blame
Cuz I barely know you how you even know me
With the white-out vans and the blacktop jeep
Yea, I did this once I ain't tryna repeat, did this once I ain't tryna repeat

I be like
Do you know my name
I ain't tryna play no games
Been too high don't feel the same
To be honest I'm the one to blame
Cuz I barely know u, how you even know me
With the white-out vans and the blacktop jeep
Yea, I did this once I ain't tryna repeat, did this once I ain't tryna repeat

It's been hard for me to move on Forget the past and put my shoes on
I wish that I could Many moments that I wish that I would Guess I'm bad at showing my intentions are good
So shawty can I be that guy
Things are faded need no high
Maybe she just not the one
I'm thinkin' it's already done
So why do I keep tellin' myself lies

Lil shorty do you know my name
Cuz I ain't tryna play no games
Been too high it don't feel the same

To be honest I'm the one to blame
Cuz I barely know u, even know me
With the white-out vans and the blacktop jeep
Yea, I did this once I ain't tryna repeat, did this once I ain't tryna repea
