I was a lost cause
Still, You calling me a friend despite all my flaws
Tried to do it on my own, but it was my loss
Need You desperately, I can't pretend
Yeah, okay, it's my scars in the palm of Your hands
You turned my heart gold, it was a stone back then
I was a lost soul, gave me a reason to breathe again

All along, it was You that I was missing
Now I found the One
Like a Psalm, You breathe new life into my lungs

I need You like some oxygen
Promise that You'll always keep me close and won't let go
Bring me back to life again
You're the only one that can revive all these dry bones, bones, bones
Keep me close and don't let go, go, go

Yeah, I got a couple hundred things in life I don't understand
But I don't gotta have it all to know to trust in Your plan
I know Your Word is like a light onto my path, it show me where to go
(Oh, oh)
You stay providing all my needs just like it be on demand
You keep my head above, won't ever let me sink in the sand
I run to You when life gets hard, I haven't found a better way to cope
(Oh, oh, oh, yeah)

All along, it was You that I was missing
Now I found the One
Like a Psalm, You breathe new life into my lungs

I need You like some oxygen
Promise that You'll always keep me close and won't let go
Bring me back to life again
You're the only one that can revive all these dry bones, bones, bones
Keep me close and don't let go, go, go

Uh, and it can be hard to define love
But when You come around, it don't take much
I let down my guard and put my trust in You
We're locked in, I'm never leavin'
And it can be hard to define love
But when You come around, it don't take much
I let down my guard and put my trust in You
We're locked in, I'm never leavin'

I need You like some oxygen
Promise that You'll always keep me close and won't let go
Bring me back to life again
You're the only one that can revive all these dry bones, bones, bones
Keep me close and don't let go, go, go
