Can't see myself in the mirror
'Cause somehow it's clearer when I ain't the one in the scene
Crazy how my vision blurry
When I'm in a hurry and all I be thinking is me

Pride is the fall of the man
Who is built on the sand and is blinded to what he can't see
Praying for grace on the family tree
I told my brotha, "You gotta believe"

I told my brother, "You gotta believe"
I pray the Lord give him vision to see
Seeking His face 'cause that's all that you need
Goodness and mercy keep following me

Seeking Your face and I don't need a reason
Pleadin' the blood, make it bleed
Stay in Your presence thru every season
Right where You want me to be

Taking me higher when I hit my knees
Kingdom of darkness be taking a seat
I found Your love and I'm finally free
He paid the price, I don't need a receipt

Need an ID
Flow thru my veins like I'm needing IV
They tryna look but there's nothing to see
Play by the book, got the Word on my feet

Mustard seed grew to a beautiful tree
And I'm bearing this fruit like it's nothing to me
Sword of the Spirit fresh out of the sheath
And it's cutting through bones and the marrow and meat

Yeah, yeah
Guess you could say I'm a prodigal son
Crazy how everything panned out
Just had to put all my faith in the One
His mercy ain't never ran out

What do you think?
Me in the Spirit, we really in sync
We armored up and we going to war
Praise be to God the commander and chief

Taking me higher when I hit my knees
Kingdom of darkness be taking a seat

I found Your love and I'm finally free
He paid the price, I don't need a receipt

You laid down Your life, paid every debt I owed
I'm never alone – You everywhere I go
Wash me in Your blood and make me clean, oh
First and last, everything in between 'em

You laid down Your life, paid every debt I owed
