

Yeah

My God reigns throughout every season
Rain, hail, shine, everything between 'em
Sun through the clouds, know it's You that's beamin'
From the east to the west and the whole region

I gotta confess, when I'm less, You are more
All that I have, give it up, it is Yours
All of my strength at the hope of the core
When I'm put to the test, leave my stress at the door

'Cause You're the God of holiness
Let Your kingdom come again
He's restorin' everything
Let the whole world watch see
Lord, start it here with me, with me, with me

Ayy, okay, I never been the man in the first place (Nah)
Even on my worst days, You would show me light and bring me first aid (He did)
Birthplace, we gon' bring it right back to the first page (Mm-hm)
We gon' say His name, let it continue as the verse plays
Boy, you know we steppin' in favor
Show me, what's a king to a boy in a manger?
Whole life changed when I met with the Maker
No more chains, I've been set by the Savior 'cause—

You are the reason, You're the one that I choose
Now I walk in freedom, that's why I'm spreadin' out good news

'Cause my God reigns throughout every season
Rain, hail, shine, everything between 'em
Sun through the clouds, know it's You that's beamin'
From the east to the west and the whole region

'Cause You're the God of holiness
Let Your kingdom come again
He's restorin' everything
Let the whole world watch see
Lord, start it here with me, with me, with me
