Giovannie And The Hired Guns

Dispatch we have a 10-56 Alpha at 307 North [?]

Well do you realize everything I ever did was wrong
I can't take it back, all the words and chairs that I once thre w at you
Well I'm freaked out, all these crazy thoughts that I've been h avin'
Need some help but can't seem to find it now

So what do you say? All the stupid little lies you tell me
Don't believe a single thing you say
Well I've realized that this is killin' me deep down
I'm sorry if I ever waste your time
Hell waste your time

Well I've spent some time with myself alone at night
I've been thinkin' that maybe this ain't right
Well I'm trapped inside of my own head, can't get out
Feelin' like these things are tryin' to hold me down
Well you can't save someone that's already drowning
In their own fears but I found a way out

So what do you say? All the stupid little lies you tell me
Don't believe a single thing you say
Well I've realized that this is killin' me deep down
I'm sorry if I ever waste your time
Hell waste your time

So what do you say? all the stupid little lies you tell me
Don't believe a single thing you say
Well I've realized that this is killin' me deep down
I'm sorry if I ever waste your time
Hell waste your time
